SUBJECT: OREN E. LONG
 SIDNEY R. YATES
 SPECIAL INQUIRIES - STATE DEPARTMENT

Sidney Richard Yates

We have today received requests for investigation from the State Department of the captioned individuals who are being considered for Presidential appointments, exact positions not stated.

Long is the former Senator from Hawaii whose term has just expired. Yates is the former Representative from Illinois whose term has also just expired. A quick check with Mr. DeLoach's Office indicates that our past relations with both Long and Yates have been cordial. Bureau files are being completely checked.

ACTION:

The cases have been ordered separately to the field for immediate attention, and the field has been instructed to conduct no neighborhood investigations without Bureau approval. You will be advised of any unusual developments.

CREDIT AND ARREST RECORDS

The appointee listed a brother as IRVING YATES, Van Nuys, California.

On January 21, 1963, the files of the Retail Merchants Credit Association, Los Angeles, California, were caused to be searched and a credit file was located for IRVING YATES, Sr., and wife, [REDACTED] 4521 Carpenter Avenue, North Hollywood, California, since August, 1940. The credit rating was satisfactory.

b6
b7C

On January 21, 1963, the files of the Los Angeles Sheriff's Office and Los Angeles Police Department, Los Angeles, California, were caused to be searched and no record concerning IRVING YATES could be located.

MISCELLANEOUS

A. PAUL HOLLEB, 111 West Washington, Chicago, Illinois, was interviewed at the Riviera Hotel, Palm Springs, California, on January 21, 1962, and he advised that SIDNEY RICHARD YATES married his daughter, ADELINE, 27 years ago. He stated he met YATES' parents; however, they died shortly after the marriage. He related YATES is a law partner with his son, MARSHALL HOLLEB, at 33 North La Salle, Chicago, Illinois. Mr. HOLLEB further advised that YATES is outstanding in every respect.

On January 21, 1963, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated IRVING YATES and wife, [REDACTED] reside at 4521 Carpenter Avenue, North Hollywood, California, and have resided there for the past five years. She stated she has known them for the past five years as her landlord. She said IRVING YATES is employed as a supplier of scenic background and camera equipment to Hollywood studios. She added that IRVING YATES is of good character, associates, reputation and loyalty.

Church affiliation	Jewish
Schooling	Graduated Lake View High School, January 28, 1927; entered University of Chicago on March 28, 1927, in the Senior College and received a Ph.B. degree on June 16, 1931; also received a J.D. degree from University of Chicago on June 13, 1933.

CG 161-770

[] said the records show that the appointee had transferred to the law school at this university on October 1, 1930, and maintained a "E" average in his undergraduate work and in law school.

[] Assistant to the Dean, University of Chicago Law School, advised SA [] on January 18, 1963, that her records show that the appointee entered this law school on October 1, 1930, and a J.D. degree was conferred upon him on June 13, 1933.

b6
b7c

Both [] and [] stated there was nothing of an unfavorable nature contained in the appointee's files and that they could not suggest anyone presently associated with this university who might be personally acquainted with the appointee.

Employment

Illinois State Bank Receiver

Illinois Commerce Commission (ICC),
State of Illinois Building,
160 North La Salle Street,
Chicago, Illinois

[] Assistant Secretary, ICC, advised SA [] on January 21, 1963, that he has been acquainted with the appointee through a political association for the past six months. He personally considers the appointee to be of excellent character, a loyal American citizen, and one whose associates are above reproach. He has never heard anything suggestive or improper concerning any of the appointee's personal associates or activities, and the appointee is regarded in "political circles" as a diligent and dedicated person. [] advised he would recommend the appointee for a position of trust.

b6
b7c

CG 161-770

[] advised from a record card that the appointee was first employed by the ICC on July 1, 1937, and voluntarily resigned on February 17, 1939. He was again employed on August 16, 1939, and again voluntarily resigned on November 15, 1940. This card showed that he had been appointed an examiner with the ICC on September 1, 1939, but contained no other information.

b6
b7C

[] Docket Clerk, advised SA [] on January 21, 1963, that she personally recalls the appointee as being employed with this commission during the period 1937-1940. At the time he was first employed here, he was among a group of honor law school graduates who were being employed by the ICC.

b6
b7C

[] said she recalled the appointee as being a pleasant individual who was a diligent worker, intelligent, and held in regard by his co-workers. Since that period of time she has known the appointee only by reputation and has nothing but the highest regard for him.

b6
b7C

[] said that prior to being associated with the ICC, she was under the impression that the appointee had formerly worked as a receiver for the Illinois State Bank Receiver.

b6
b7C

Yates and Holleb,
33 North La Salle Street,
Chicago, Illinois

Mr. MARSHALL M. HOLLEB, Partner, advised on January 23, 1963, that he has personally been acquainted with the appointee since approximately 1929. The appointee received his education at the University of Chicago and was an honor student.

After graduating from college and receiving his law degree, the appointee received a position with the Illinois State Bank Receiver as an assistant attorney. This position had been formed during the depression years by the State of Illinois to handle the legal transactions of those banks which were falling into receivership. After his employment in this capacity, he gained employment with the ICC in Chicago, as an attorney from approximately 1937-1940. Also in 1940, the appointee became a member of this law firm and has been associated with this law firm ever since.

The appointee is an individual of impeccable moral character, a competent lawyer, and one who is dedicated to the service of his country. He enjoys good health, is temperamentally stable, and lives within his financial means. Mr. HOLLEB said he is aware that the appointee is being considered for a position with the United Nations in New York, and that his association with this law firm would produce no conflict of interests with his job in the United Nations.

To the best of his knowledge the appointee has never associated with any group or organizations which were detrimental to the best interests of the United States Government.

The appointee resides with his wife and only son on the near north side of Chicago, and his wife and son are persons of good moral integrity and loyal American citizens.

Mr. HOLLEB said based on his long business and social relationship with the appointee, he would highly endorse him for the position for which he is being considered.

The following persons advised on the dates indicated that they have been acquainted with the appointee on primarily a business and semi-social basis for at least the past year.

They stated the appointee has impressed them as being an individual who desires to work for the best interests of the United States Government and believes sincerely that the best interests of the United States Government can be furthered by active participation in politics. He is intelligent, is a capable lawyer, meets people well, and is personable. To their knowledge the appointee enjoys good health, is emotionally stable and lives within his financial means. They said that they feel that any position the appointee receives will not conflict in any manner regarding his relationship with this law firm.

They advised that the appointee spends very little time in the Chicago area because the majority of his time has been spent in Washington, D.C., and in campaigning for re-election for the Congress of the United States.

They all said they would highly recommend the appointee for a trusted position.

Associates and Acquaintances

On January 21, 1963, Honorable WILLIAM J. CAMPBELL, Chief Justice, United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois, advised SA [] that he has been acquainted with the appointee over 15 years and considers him an excellent lawyer, a good congressman, and an ethical practitioner. He stated he considers the appointee a loyal statesman and citizen, and an objective and able person. Judge CAMPBELL said he knows of nothing unfavorable concerning the appointee or his family and most highly recommends him to the position to which he was appointed.

b6
b7C

On January 18, 1963, Honorable JULIUS J. HOFFMAN, United States District Judge, Northern District of Illinois, advised SA [] that he has known the appointee for about ten years as his congressman and as a professional acquaintance. Judge HOFFMAN said appointee is a sincere, honest and dedicated person and a competent attorney, although he has not achieved any great stature as a lawyer. He said appointee has practiced in his court and is an honorable, personable and pleasant individual. He said the appointee is well spoken of in Republican circles in spite of his Democratic affiliation and is considered a person of practical politics. Judge HOFFMAN said he would have no reason to question the appointee's loyalty, character, reputation or associates.

b7C

On January 18, 1963, Honorable JAMES B. PARSONS, United States District Judge, Northern District of Illinois, advised SA [] that he first met SIDNEY R. YATES in the political campaign of 1960, and has had several occasions since then to hear him speak and to speak to him. Judge PARSONS related that his impression of the appointee is that he is a sincere, self-sacrificing, dedicated statesman for good causes. He said YATES enjoys an exceedingly fine reputation and that his background in Congress has served him well to meet the qualities needed for his present appointment. Judge PARSONS

b6
b7C

CG 161-770

said he believes the appointee's congressional experiences should reflect a substantial knowledge of international problems. Regarding the appointee's loyalty to the United States, Judge PARSONS said the appointee has consistently and substantially condemned communism. Judge PARSONS stated he has never heard anything which would reflect unfavorably on the appointee.

On January 21, 1963, Honorable MICHAEL L. IGOE, United States District Judge, Northern District of Illinois, advised SA [] that he has known the appointee for 20 years through his wife and father-in-law. He stated the appointee is eminently qualified and competent for the position to which he was appointed. He said he regards YATES as an unquestionably loyal American citizen and statesman of excellent character, reputation, and associates. He said he has known appointee socially through association at the Bryn Mawr Country Club. Judge IGOE said he knows of nothing unfavorable concerning appointee and recommends him without reservation to the position to which he was appointed.

b7C

On January 21, 1963, Honorable HUBERT L. WILL, United States District Judge, Northern District of Illinois, advised SA [] that he has known the appointee for about 30 years, having met him at the University of Chicago. Judge WILL stated he regards the appointee as an unquestionably loyal American dedicated to good democratic government. He said in his opinion the appointee is too well qualified for the position and that he is making a mistake by accepting the appointment. Judge WILL said he knows of nothing unfavorable concerning the appointee or his family and knows that he associates with persons of excellent character, reputation and morals.

b6
b7C

On January 13, 1963, [] United States Attorney, Northern District of Illinois, Chicago, Illinois,

b6
b7C

CG 161-770

advised SA [] that he has known the appointee for about ten years through associations in Washington, D.C. He stated he considers the appointee a good lawyer and very able person, highly qualified for the position to which he was appointed.

b6
b7C

[] stated he regards YATES as a loyal American of excellent character, reputation and associates. [] said he knows nothing unfavorable concerning YATES and highly recommends him for the position to which he was appointed.

The following persons advised on the dates indicated that they have been acquainted with the appointee for at least six years and consider the appointee to be a competent lawyer, an excellent congressman, and a person who has a devoted and sincere dedication to the constitutional form of government as practiced in the United States. To their knowledge the appointee has never been associated or allied with any group or organization which is detrimental to the best interest of the United States Government. He has championed the cause of minority groups and has always spoke with a feeling of conviction and dedication to duty.

The appointee enjoys a good reputation in the legal community and although the majority of his time is spent in Washington, D.C., or in campaigning, he still has a profitable law practice in Chicago.

The appointee and his wife and son are persons of excellent moral character and persons who associate with people of good reputation. To their knowledge, the appointee enjoys good health and his present assignment to the United Nations in their opinion would in no manner or form conflict with his law firm in Chicago.

They all said they would highly recommend him for a position with the United Nations.

The Honorable
The Secretary of State
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Secretary:

In accordance with the request of Mr. John F. Reilly, in a letter dated January 16, 1963, an investigation has been conducted concerning Mr. Sidney Richard Yates. Transmitted herewith is a summary memorandum containing the results of this investigation, a copy of which is also being furnished to the White House.

Information has been received from three governmental agencies*indicating that the checks of their files concerning Mr. Yates have not been completed. When these checks are completed, you will be advised.

Several individuals who may be acquainted with Mr. Yates are presently unavailable. They will be interviewed, and you will be advised.

In October, 1962, the Department of Justice furnished a copy of an anonymous campaign letter addressed to southern Illinois newspapers concerning Sidney Yates candidate for the United States Senate. The letter referred to Mr. Yates as a communist and left-winger. Investigation was requested to determine if distribution of the letter constituted a possible violation of the Election Law statute prohibiting distribution of unlabeled political literature. Following preliminary investigation,
